

Ed Gillespie And Virgil Reeder Are Y-12's October Retirees

Two more Y-12ers are added to the retiree's list this month, as Edgar Gillespie, Process Maintenance; and Virgil W. Reeder, Area Five Maintenance, retire Friday, October 30. Also leaving on early retirement (the Bulletin tried to send him out earlier than his early retirement) is Hillman D. Dobbs, Machine Maintenance.

Bell, Eldridge Lead This Week's Seminar

Two speakers will head this week's Thermonuclear Division seminar. O. Eldridge, consultant from the University of Tennessee, will speak on "A Survey of Anomalous Diffusion." P. R. Bell, Thermonuclear Division, will discuss "Lack of High-Energy Neutrons from Ionization of Hydrogen."

The seminar is set for Thursday, October 29, at 9 a.m. in the TD Conference Room, Building 9201-2.

Linde Expands Again At Western Facility

Oxygen-Nitrogen Capacity Increased

New air-separation facilities to be installed at Union Carbide Corporation's Fontana, California, plant will provide an additional 400 tons a day of liquid oxygen-nitrogen capacity, it was announced by Birny Mason Jr., president. This is part of a continuing expansion of facilities installed at Fontana in 1956. It will boost the plant's total liquid capacity to approximately 1,200 tons a day.

A major share of the increased capacity, half of which is scheduled to go on stream during the latter part of 1965, will be used to supply West Coast rocket engine testing projects under the government's aerospace development program. Robert F. Flood, president of Union Carbide's Linde Division, which operates the Fontana plant, said: "This current expansion is part of a long-term growth program that has been planned to anticipate air-separation requirements on the West Coast." In addition to liquid production, the plant supplies 750 tons a day of high-purity gaseous oxygen and 122 tons a day of high-purity gaseous nitrogen to Kaiser Steel's adjacent steelmaking facilities.

The Fontana plant is already supplying large quantities of liquefied gases to nearby rocket development centers. It was the major source of supply for the recent demonstration known as "Operation Cold," in which an unprecedented delivery of 2,000 tons of liquid oxygen was made to Edwards Air Force Base in less than 24 hours. This demonstration — conducted jointly by Union Carbide's Linde Division, Rocketdyne, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and the U. S. Air Force — proved that liquid oxygen requirements of NASA's accelerated F-1 rocket engine testing program could be supplied dependably and economically by routine commercial production and transportation techniques.

HENRY M. HEIDT, Chemical Engineering Development, is awarded a patent application for his development on the "Recovery of Platinum Metals." Department Superintendent George B. Marrow, left, makes the presentation as W. K. Whitson, Development Superintendent, looks on from the right.

8 Departments Are Added To United Fund Honor Roll

Y-12's United Fund Drive was virtually wound up last week as final reports were being compiled. A total of $41,803 will be added to Community Chest in this area, thanks to Y-12ers.

A new high in payroll-deduction giving was reached and Y-12ers were still pushing to surpass last year's record breaking $42,000 record. (Plant population is 300 below what it was last year.)

Meanwhile, officials add eight more departments to the honor roll of 100 per cent participants:

Electrical
Mechanical Inspection
Laboratory Operations
Production Assay
Production Analysis
Assembly Operations
Dispatching
Gage Certification Laboratory

Already reported in as 100 per

Surplus Property

Sale November 4

Vehicles, Typewriters Among Sale Items

A surplus property sale is now being conducted by the Sales Office. Included in the "spot bid" sale are used government-owned vehicles and office equipment. There are Chevrolet, Dodge and Ford Trucks (pick-ups, carryalls and panels), Chevrolet and Plymouth sedans, a Ford station wagon, Reo dump truck, mower, gas engine, concrete cutter, air compressor, forklifts, pickup covers and hydraulic hoists. In addition to the vehicles, such items as typewriters, adding machines and a Thermo-Fax duplicator will be offered.

Inspection on all items may be made from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. until the day of the bid . . . November 4. The sale will be held next Wednesday, November 4. The items are at Warehouse 9929-1, off Bear Creek Road, west of Y-12.

It is anticipated that successful bidders will pay for and remove their purchases after 2 p.m. the day of the sale.

'Hiroshima, Mon Amour' Is Second In AAUW Films

The celebrated "Hiroshima, Mon Amour" is the second movie in the AAUW Foreign Film Series. It will be shown Sunday, November 1, at 7 and 9 p.m. at Jefferson Junior High School. Advance tickets may be obtained through Mrs. J. W. Pridgeon, Oak Ridge telephone 483-5324. Other distinguished movies made abroad are scheduled for later showings in Oak Ridge.

Fox And Robinson Lead Physics Seminar

ORNL's R. J. Fox and Russell Robinson will discuss "Fabrication and Use of Lithium-Drifted Germanium Gamma-Ray Detectors" at Friday's Physics Division seminar.

The seminar is set for Friday, October 30, at 3:15 p.m. in the East Auditorium of ORNL's 4500 building.

The Dancetimers are planning their annual Halloween Dance Thursday, October 29, in the Coral Room of the Ridge Recreation Hall. Costumes are optional say the D-Ters . . . and all single young adults are invited to the soiree.

ASTME Will Hear Precision Expert

Dinner Meeting Is Set November 5

The Knoxville-Oak Ridge Chapter 107 of the American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers will meet next Thursday, November 5, at the Alexander Motor Hotel.

Feature of the meeting will be a presentation of a program on precision boring tools, their geometry, and grinding techniques.

This presentation will be given by Allen N. Sweeny, vice president-manager of Devlieg Microbore Division, Devlieg Machine Company, Royal Oak, Michigan. His talk will be supplemented with slides.

Sweeny is a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology and has been associated with the Devlieg Machine Company for the past 20 years. He has served in various capacities with Devlieg, his most recent assignments prior to his appointment as vice president-manager being that of manager of Microbore Division, director of research and engineering, and chief engineer of Microbore Division. He is recognized as one of the industry's leading experts in the field of single point cutting tool as related to precision boring.

Sweeny also served as the Devlieg Machine Company representative to the E. I. A. Standards Committee on Numerical Control Standards and has been a major contributor to Devlieg's advancement in numerical control as applied to the already famous Devlieg JIGMIL.

Dinner, which is optional, will be served at 7 p.m., with the technical session beginning at 8 p.m. Members and their guests are urged to attend this very informative meeting.

Redmon Son Goes To Mortuary School

J. M. Redmon

J. M. Redmon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Redmon, Wartburg, has entered the John Guppton School of Mortuary Science, Nashville.

Young Redmon is a 1962 graduate of Central High School, Wartburg, where he was church organist at Liberty Baptist Church. He has served two years as an apprentice mortician at Booth Funeral Home, Rockwood.

The Redmon parent is in Y-12's Beta Four Heavy Machine Shop.

Oak Ridge High Band Invited To Give Memphis Concert

At the big Sevierville-Oak Ridge game Friday night, the Oak Ridge High School Band will sell Booster Tags. The big game is set for Friday, October 30, with the kick-off at 8 p.m.

The ORHS Band has been honored by an invitation to the Mid-South Band Directors Conference in Memphis, January 15 and 16. A new work by David Van Vactor, director of the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra, and possibly another new work by Eugene Steinquist, Cookeville, woodwind instructor and band director at the Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, will be performed. The Oak Ridge group was one of the few Mid-South bands chosen to perform for the over 2,000 directors expected.

Y-12 children included in the band are Katie Watson (C. W., 9212 Shops); Pam Cloyd (Roger, Ceramics and Plastics Development); Mary Palkowski (D. H. Tool Engineering); Jay Cole (James S., Fabrication Planning and Coordination); Allen Coggins (W. L., Salvage); John Noey (Lynn, Instrument Engineering); Janet Stoner (H. H., Superintendents); Jim Bailey (C. L., Mechanical Inspection); Suzy Elmore (H. N., Research Services); Martha Shatley (H. E., H-1 Foundry); Kathy Schmitt (C. R., Chemistry Development); Carolyn Menchhofer (H. L., Machine Maintenance); Frances Williams, (E. C., Engineering Mechanics); Donnie Marlar (C. L., Uranium Chemistry); Dwight Sullivan (Mrs. Wm. H., Y-12 Technical Library); Doug Johnson (E. E., Statistical Services); Claude Francke (H. C., Chemical Engineering Development); David Hagood (B. P., Research Services); Bert Cotton (A. D., Area Five Maintenance); Kenny Jackson (V. C., Physical Testing) and Randy McConnell (J. B., General Can Fabrication Shop). Parents names are shown in parentheses, following the students' names.

Good luck, bandmen; play it 'purty' in Memphis!

Metals Society Meet Tonight In Oak Ridge

The Oak Ridge Chapter of the American Society for Metals is meeting tonight, Wednesday, October 28, at the Alexander Motor Hotel, Oak Ridge. Dinner begins at 6:45 and the formal program will start at 8.

Featured speaker is Thomas M. Miller, Marshall Products Company. A 15-minute movie "March of Materials Technology" will also be shown.

'Integral Part Of Thriving Economy'

"By encouraging thrift and the prudent use of one's resources, credit unions have become an integral part of our thriving American economy."

"In recent years credit unions have filled a gap in the developing nations of the free world. Through the principles of brotherhood and individual self-help, they are helping to provide needed capital to the citizens of these new nations — enabling them to build prosperous economies and democratic societies."

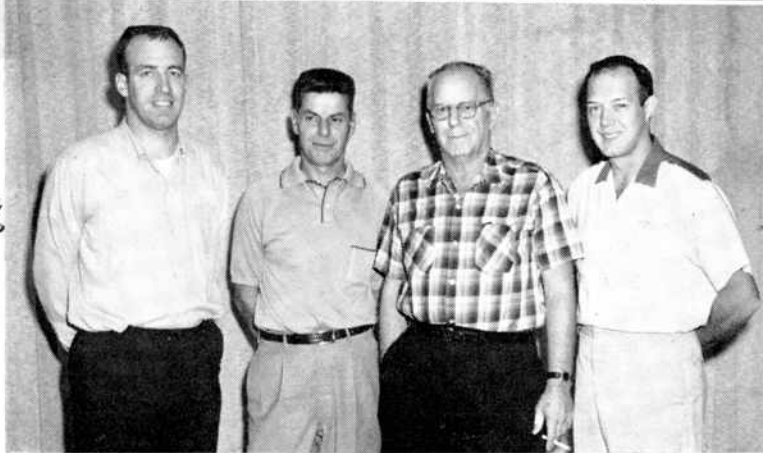

Lyndon Johnson, President

'Prince And Pauper' Is Sunday's Play

The Oak Ridge Junior Playhouse will feature "The Prince and the Pauper" Sunday, November 1 at 2 p.m., at Jefferson Junior High School. The musical play will be done by the Children's Musical Theatre, New York City. The N. Y. Times calls the group "As fine an example of original children's theatre as the city has to offer." Season membership to Junior Playhouse is now available. Individual tickets are 60 cents at the door.

Pintwisters Edge Topward In E Bowling Competition

The Pintwisters reached for first place in last week's E Bowling League by downing the Cannon Balls by the full count of four. Thus they came within a point and a half of the goal as the Four Squares took only three from the Ten Pins. The other match saw the Hot Shots take three from the Ten Pins. The other match saw the Hot Shots take three from the Alley Bees.

J. Plaza, Four Squares, took scratch honors, making a 232 single, and 574 series total. Teammate Hummel rolled handicap highs with a 261 single and 675 series.

The Squares also took team honors, belting out singles of 681 scratch, 820 handicap . . . and series of 1967 scratch, 2384 handicap.

ORNL Skeeters Are In Lead In Firing

Dominate Two Loop Classes To Date

The Carbide Skeet League fired its fifth round, Sunday, October 18. A perfect score to date would be 125. ORNL's J. A. Swartout took command of Class AAA's lead with a 112 total score . . . closely followed by Red Wiest's 110.

The Y-12 dominated Class AA is led by Charlie Asmanes with a 111. Remaining skeeters in this class have incomplete scores.

Another ORNLite, H. D. Wills takes command of Class A with many more unfinished firings in scoring.

The next shoot is set for Sunday, November 1, at the skeet field at the Oak Ridge Sportsman's Association. Time is running out, skeeters, you'd better get those make-up firings in now.

Goofers Take Slim Lead In Mixed Set

The Goofers climbed again last week to break the tie between themselves and the Chumps for leaders in the Mixed Bowling League. The Goofers took the Alley Cats for the full count, while the Chumps took the Blue Angels for three and one-half points. The Turtles also won four from the Bingos and the Twisters twisted three away from the Alley Oops.

Virginia Newby, Goofers, hit her stride to sweep women's individual honors . . . rolling singles of 167 scratch, 220 handicap . . . series of 418 scratch and 577 handicap. Glenn Bates, subbing on the Goofers, rolled high singles 257 scratch (which gave him no handicap) . . . 257 handicap. His scratch series of 589 was high also . . . but Charlie Myers, Turtles, took high count in series handicap scoring with 638.

The Goofers swept the board in singles of 699 scratch, 827 handicap . . . and series of 1921 scratch and 2351 handicap.

League standings follow:

Linda Johnson Is 'Fairest Of Fair'

Linda Johnson
"Fairest of the Fair"

Lloyd Johnson, Beta Four Heavy Machine Shop, has been wearing a grin lately. He has good reason, too. His daughter, Linda, was recently named "The Fairest of the Fair" at the Harriman (Roane County) Fair. Linda competed against 13 other girls from Roane County and will represent that area at the State Fair in Nashville.

Linda is a senior at Roane County High School and is majoring in home economics and business. Along with her other activities, Linda is a cheerleader at RCHS.

The Johnson home is at 1103 Dogwood Drive, Kingston.
Good luck, Linda.

The bulk of Y-12's contributions, naturally, goes to Anderson County . . . with Knox, Roane, Loudon and Morgan also receiving considerable amounts to the betterment of those communities.

The United Fund Drive is the only time in the year an employee is asked to contribute anything. It is through this once-a-year appeal that Red Feather agencies throughout the area receive needed funds for their vital, worthwhile endeavors.

News is sparse this week, but first let's look around to see what's going on . . . first in

METAL PREPARATION

Chemical Services called this one in recently . . . and it got lost in the shuffle. The Homer D. Bozeman's add little Robyn Tharp Bozeman to the family roll . . . congratulations.

Get well wishes to W. A. Wells, ill in Oak Ridge Hospital . . . and to John Pike's wife, who underwent surgery recently at Ft. Sanders.

John Burdette motored through South Carolina on vacation . . . and Connie O'Neal vacationed in Chicago.

The Richard Mustin family is all smiles these days . . . son Jerry has recently returned from a four-year stint in the United States Navy.

J. D. Bass vacationed in South Harriman, attending special services at his church, and fishing during the daytime.

Dora Bagwell is in a hospital ill. Best wishes to her, also.

The Clifford Massengills add another to their family recently . . . at Fort Sanders, more details later.

Legally the husband is head of the household . . . and the pedestrian has the right-of-way. Both are safe as long as they don't try to exercise their rights.

SHIFT SUPERINTENDENTS AND UTILITIES

Joe Braden is ill at St. Mary's Hospital, and best wishes go to him . . . Vacationers include Carl Frazier, just messing around home . . . and Finley Creigh and the misses taking in sights in West (by gum) Virginia, Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia.

ED DEL GRANDE, Labor Relations, receives the first prize of a wrist watch in the past slogan contest, sponsored by the Safety Department. Eula Johnson accepts the second prize of two boat seats from Industrial Relations Superintendent H. G. P. Snyder. Walter Simmons, right, took the third prize of a lap robe.

Quarterly Slogan Winners Are Named; With Winter Themes

Last quarter winners in Safety's slogan contest have been announced. Taking first place was Ed Del Grande, Labor Relations; with Eula Johnson, Machine Tool Engineering; and Walt Simmons, Process Maintenance, also declared winners.

Del Grande took a man's wrist watch as first prize, Eula took boat seats, and Walt won the lap robe.

"Watch Out For That Freezy Skid Stuff," was Eula Johnson's winter entry for the current slogan race. Simmons entered a bear looking for a place to hibernate; the cartoon was labeled

"Don't Get Trapped By Unwise Practices . . . but BEAR in mind Safety Pays."

Ed Del Grande took poetic license in spelling a word, and came up with the following:

Snow
Hail
Frost
Ice
Sleep
Wind

"Put Safety in the Middle of your Winter."

Another new slogan contest will open with plant-wide and division-wide prizes. It will be announced early in November.

C. A. Pickens, W. W. Wright, C. A. Baer and F. O. Gaddis.

A happy girl is one that is being chased by a man she thinks she's chasing!

And here's the rest of the happy family . . . Jacqueline, age nine, who is in the fourth grade at Fountain City Elementary School and Darren, only four.

All the world loves a lover unless you are waiting for the phone booth he's using!

MAINTENANCE

Research Services has Evan Means vacationing recently . . . seeing the World's Series and fishing at Bull Shoals Lake, Arkansas. Evan is on the advisory committee for this series (The Sports Fishing . . . not the World's.)

Get well wishes to V. C. Escue,

Mitchel K. Parker

Here is little Mitchel Keith Parker, born August 29, at Oak Ridge Hospital. He is the grandson of A. A. Pierce, Guard Department . . . and his mama will be remembered as Lucy Parker, formerly in 9212.

That's it.
